

“Little” SENIOR MOMENTS to keep you posted.

Be Safe....Stay Home & Phone A Friend

EDITION 9 28.8.20

Betty's Blog.

A bit of welcome news for all our members! The hard-working Committee of Management have finally come up with a RE-OPENING DATE....TUESDAY, 6TH OCTOBER, 2020—opening Monday-Friday.

BUT.....with the following restrictions to fit within the current COVID-19 regulations

- ◆ Classes limited to 10 people
- ◆ Participation in an activity is “by invitation only”
- ◆ The re-opening will run as a trial for 3 weeks and then be assessed by COM as to its future.

Activity Convenors will be contacted by a COM member and appraised of how each class will operate and how the Covid-19 Regulations will operate within the club.

The complexities of getting to this point has just stunned me, and I have nothing but admiration for those COM members who have given a great deal of their time to get to this point. I've had very little input to the plan as I'm tied up with doctors and specialists.

Remember, you may or may not get an invitation to attend an activity group—some activities are too difficult to include in the trial period because of the general use of equipment by participants—other activities with large attendance will have to be spread over the 3 weeks trial period.

Glad to report I've had conversations with quite a few club members and it seems that most people have come to terms with the changed lifestyle we've been forced into. I'm still finding things to do and have finished knitting a cardigan, sorted out all my odd wool and am now knitting a “Joseph's Coat of Many Colours” with all the odds and sods of leftover skeins.....whether I'll be game to wear it is another matter!

That's All for Now Folks—To Stay Safe, wear a mask....Bye Bettybee

- ◆ One of the signs of old age is when you have to carry your senses around in your hand-bag—glasses, hearing aid, dentures etc Kurt Strauss
- ◆ You know you're getting old when you have more fingers than teeth. Rodney Dangerfield

Joke Time

A middle-aged woman had a heart attack and was taken to hospital. While on the operating table she had a near death experience. Seeing God, she asked, “Is my time up?”

God said, “No, you have 40 years, two months and eight days to live.”

Upon recovery, the woman decided to stay in hospital and have a facelift, liposuction, and a tummy tuck. She even have someone come in and change her hair colour. Since she had so much more time to live, she figured she might as well make the most of it. After her last operation, while crossing the street on her way home, she was killed by an ambulance.

Arriving in front of God, she demanded, “I thought you said I had another 40 years to go. Why didn't you pull me from out of the path of the ambulance?”

God replied, “I didn't recognise you,”

An elderly couple had been dating for some time.. Finally they decided it was time for marriage. Before the wedding they went out for dinner and had a long conversation regarding how their marriage might work. They discussed finances, living arrangements and so on. Finally the old gentleman decided it was time to broach the subject of their physical relationship.

“How do you feel about sex?” he asked rather trustingly.

“Well,” she says, responding very carefully, “I'd have to say I would like it infrequently.”

The old gentleman sat quietly for a moment. Then looking over his glasses, looked her in the eye casually and asked, “Was that one or two words?”

You told me you'd spend your whole life trying to make me happy. I didn't expect to live this long

